OXFORD WILDCATS
1947

Dear Mr. Seaver,
 I wished you'd let people know ahead of time
 if they say you're going to be away in your classes from being in your class especially when you write to me.
 Sincerely,
 Pat Seaver
 46-47

Dear Mr. Lease,

It really has been great fun knowing you and taking band. I appreciate all your hard work to try to make me a good soloist but you can't do with what you haven't got. I sure am glad you aren't the type to worry because you sure would have the night of the appetita. Ha! Ha! I know you must get disgusted when we don't show up for band so I'll try to make it from now on. Hope to see you around next year.

Good Luck Always

Oxford Takes Sumwick Title

Oxford, Kans., Nov. 9 (Special) —Oxford high's gridders won the Sumwick league title last night at Mulvane by turning back the Mulvane team, 12 to 7.

Oxford scored in the first and again in the second, both times on brilliant runs by Shumard.

Mulvane's score came early in the fourth. The Mulvane team converted but was unable to get across the goal again.

Oxford has not been defeated in Sumwick league play this season and won an undisputed title.
